

THE SCOOP

LONDONS FINEST MORNING

MONDAY, JANUARY 15, 1923

BUY IT NOW IN MORE THAN FIVE

PROFESSOR'S HOME BURNS - THE POLICE FEARS FOR HIS SAFETY -

Professor Julius Arthur Smith, a figure well known in academia, was sought today following the burning of his home under mysterious circumstances. Missing is also Dr. Smith's manservant, one James Beddows. Witnesses saw a man resembling Beddows run from the house just before the fire broke out.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of either Dr. Smith or Mr. Beddows is requested to contact Detective Sergeant Rigby at Scotland Yard's Arson Division.

DOCTOR COOLIDGE COMES TO ENGLAND AGAIN

As a tribute to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge sent an invitation to Dr. George T. Harding of Marion, Ohio, father of Warren G. Harding, and his wife to be guests at

BROOKLYN CHIEF - MEETING OF BOROUGH

In a final attempt to break and keep him in line Democrats who do not Hylan could make a win third term yesterday salaries to the Mayor, who ing all their persuasive with a view to inducing Mayoralty race and acc for the Supreme Court in judicial District. Up to last night the Hylan Forces had Mayor